PERSONAL.—We had the pleasure of calls this morning, from our old friends, Judge D. A. Walker and Col. J. A. W. Johnson of Dalton, and Judge Jas. S. Hook, of Augusta; also from Col. A. M. Rogers, of Waynesboro.

Negro Question.

In another column we give the able letter of Hon. Alexander H. Stephens, on the status of the expelled legislative members. It will be seen that he endorses the legal position taken by THE CONSTITUTION. He thinks the decision of the Supreme Court was right, and the action of the Legislature wrong in expelling the negro members, but he contends that the reinstatement of the expelled members is an improper sequitur of the decision. This is certainly very high authority, whether viewed in the light of law or patriotism; and this endorsement of our view must carry great weight.

We have studiously avoided in our articles any appeal to prejudice, any ebullition of feeling, any considerations of sentimental preference. We have treated the subject purely as a naked legal question, without any reference to depriving the negro of any legal right, and without any purpose of resisting the legal results of the Supreme Court's decision. We have not alluded to the policy side of the question. There is ample time to discuss that hereafter, when it gets to be a practical issue.

The point now is to keep the public mind fixed upon the abstract principles of legal propriety, to preserve to the fullest extent the scheme of our chartered liberties, and to ward off if possible continued encroachments upon our constitutional plan of government.

We have yielded a great deal in the way of cherished opinions and principles. We may have to yield still more. But let us, at least while we can do so, argue for our convictions with temperate spirit and the resources of logic and law. Done with tact and judgment we can certainly not harm ourselves by such a course with intelgent, fair-minded men. We may have to succumb, but that final necessity, if come it must, can not be aggravated by timely, sensible, dignified remonstrance and argument.

A very large proportion of Northern Republicans take the same view of this legal question that we do. If we can impress them with the fact that our position is the out-growth ... of legal integrity, as it is, and not a captious disposition to thwart, without regard for law, the enforcement of the decision of the Supreme Court, we have hopes that, satisfied with the triumph on the principle and our submission to its authority, the Republicans may waive this matter, which so many of them believe, with us, to be illegal, and forego a concession on our part, that is demanded by them simply as an evidence of our disposition to carry out, in good faith, a principle, which they wish enforced, and our opposition to make which concession they will see, is not a quibbling resistance to law, but an honest act of cold legal judgment. And it will be observed that the Judges, who decided the negro eligible to office, were men of Southern birth, while the dissenting opinion came from a gentleman of Northern birth.

Our Northern countrymen must not clip too closely our system of Constitutional law, to reconstruct us. Every blow they strike at it, through us, must rebound upon them. Nor must they break down our ideas of right and duty. When men degenerate into simply truckling sycophants to expediency, they get valueless for good purposes.

We commend to them and our own people those true and memorable words of Junius, which have become historic.

"Let me exhort and conjure you, never to suffer an invasion of your political constitution, however minute the instance may appear, to pass by, without a determined persevering resistance. One precedent creates another. They soon accumulate and constitute law. What yesterday was fact to-day is doctrine. Examples are supposed to justify the most dangerous measures, and where they do not suit exactly, the defect is supplied by analogy. Be assured that the laws, which protect us in our civil rights, grow out of the Constitution, and they must fall or flourish with it. This is not the cause of faction, or of party, or of any individual, but the common interest of every man."

LETTER FROM THE HON. A. H. STEPHENS.

The Legal Status of the Expelled Members of the Legislature

From the Chronicle and Sentinel.]

LIBERTY HALL,
CRAWFORDVILLE, GA., June 29, 1869.

Gen. A. R. Wright, Chronicle and Sentinel Office, Augusta, Ga.:

DEAR SIR:—Your letter of the 21st instant was duly received, but it found me in worse condition physically, than I have been for several weeks. This, with other pressing correspondence, has prevented me from giving you my opinion upon the question propounded sooner.

I must now be brief. Indeed there is no necessity for any extended views. The argument is already exhausted by you, your neighbor of the Constitutionalist, THE CONSTITUTION at Atlanta, the letter of Judge Fleming, and the communication of Tully in your paper, some days ago, to say nothing of the labors and productions of others. But in what I have to say, it is proper to premise by stating that I believe the decision of the Supreme Court on the question of negro eligibility to office in this State to be in accordance with the law and Constitution which were their guide. Had I been on the Bench I should have come to the same conclusion under the same law and Constitution, that a majority of the Court did, though not exactly by the same process of reasoning pursued by these learned Judges. The result of my judgment, however, would have been the same.

I thought the two Houses of our General Assembly, committed an error in deciding that those members who had been elected, and returned to their respective bodies with an eighth or more of African blood, were thereby disqualified to hold seats in the Legislature under the laws and Constitution of the State as they now stand. But it was a question which they alone—each House for itself—had the right and power under the Constitution to adjudicate and determine. By the Constitution of the State, each House is made the sole judge to decide upon election returns and qualifications of its members. This question of eligibility and qualification to hold office on the part of this class of persons, who are elevated to the status of citizenship by the present Constitution of the State, I knew was one not free from doubt—one on which able and true men might and did differ. Therefore, while I thought the decision was erroneous, I also thought that all charges against these Legislative bodies upon the grounds that their judgment had been made from captious and factious motives were altogether unjust.

This now clearly appears from the able dissentient opinion of Judge Warner, an eminent jurist of the Republican party, who still maintains, after all the discussion since had, that the decision of the Houses was right. Men on both sides, therefore, should learn to be more charitable in their opinions of the motives of men in the discharge of public duties.

But your question to me is, what effect this decision of the Supreme Court, now rendered, can have upon the cases of those members, who were decided by the respective Houses of the Legislature, not to be qualified to hold seats therein? Will it be to reseat these excluded members, or are they legally entitled to be reseated thereby? To this there can be but one legal and judicial answer. That is, no! These cases have been decided by the only tribunal having constitutional jurisdiction over them, and having been decided, they can not be again opened by the Houses who decided them. Their judgment, after being finally rendered, can not be again taken up, or reversed, by themselves, any more than the Supreme Court itself can go back to the docket of last session and reverse any of its own decisions then rendered to the unsettling of the rights of the parties therein adjudicated. Much less can this judgment of the Supreme Court legally affect in any way the action of the two houses in the premises. It can have no binding or obligatory effect whatever upon the past or future action of the Houses of the General Assembly upon the question involved, for by the Constitution, as stated above, each House is the sole and exclusive judge of this question, so far as membership of their respective bodies is concerned, for all time to come, or so long as the Constitution shall remain as it is on that point. No change, it is presumed, will ever be made in it in this particular, for it is in strict conformity with that universal law in all representative governments, whenever and wherever established, either civil or ecclesiastical, by which the sole power to decide absolutely upon the qualifications of the members of the Legislative bodies is and has been, without exception I believe, vested in those bodies themselves. From their decision there is no appeal to any other tribunal; and from the very nature of the subject there cannot properly be. This power, like all other delegated powers, has often been very grossly abused in this as well as in other countries. It has been grossly abused repeatedly, perhaps, by one house or the other of the Legislature in every State of the Union, as it has unquestionably often been most grossly abused by Congress. Its gross abuses in the British Parliament are well known by students of history. Still this arrangement in the distribution of the powers of Government is the only one, or the best one, yet discoverd for keeping separate, distinct and perfectly independent of each other the three great Departments, to-wit: the Executive, Judiciary and Legislative. Monstrous as the doctrine seems to some, yet it has come down to us stamped with the wisdom of our ancestors after the experience of centuries.

This sole power to decide upon the election, returns and qualifications of the members of each House which is vested in it by the Constitution, is, however, by no means an unlimited power. Because there is no appeal from its exercise, this by no means justifies a capricious or illegal decision under it. It is a power of great trust to be exercised as all other judicial powers are. Each House is constituted a judge for the purpose—this Court so constituted is to hear and decide both the law and the facts in each case as it comes before them. First, to hear the facts and then apply the law to them. In forming their judgment upon the law and the facts, they are to be governed by the same general principles which govern all other courts in arriving at truth, right and justice. Their decisions when made in any case stand as the decisions of all other courts, from which no appeal or writ of error lies. This is the law of the case.

But how far members of the Legislature might very properly be influenced, (in deciding doubtful questions of law involved in the legal qualifications of those elected and returned to the respective Houses,) by the judgment of the highest judicial tribunal in the State, upon the same questions in all other offices of the State, is a very different question. My opinion is, that in all doubtful questions, or where their own convictions are not both clear and strong, they should be influenced, but not otherwise. The two Houses of our General Assembly at the last session, I have been informed, concurred in a resolution submitting this question as one on which they had doubts to the Supreme Court, with a pledge to conform to the decision of that Court in their action. How this is, I do not know, but if my informant is correct, it certainly relieves them of all imputation of improper or factious motives in their first action. The effect of the decision now rendered under that resolution, would be a requirement of them in all future like cases which may come before them to decide, in accordance with the principles established by the judgment of the Supreme Court. This is all the fulfillment of the pledge that they can legally and constitutionally render. This, I think, the same Judges who made this decision would, if inquired of, pronounce to be a right view of the subject.

Yours most respectfully,
ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS.

Sundown.

I stood by the marge of the summer sea,
As the day was quietly dying,
When the waves were lulled in a dreamless sleep,
And the seamews plaintively crying.

The broad red disc of the setting sun
Was poised on the mighty ocean,
And the wavelets were breaking one by one
On the shore, with a dreamy motion.

But a gorgeous curtain of blue and gold
Now fell on the sleeping billow,
And the sun, like a monarch infirm and old,
Reclined on a glowing pillow.

But again a change, as he sank to rest,
On his couch of surprising glory,
For the hues that trembled on ocean's breast,
Mocked the wonders of Eastern story.

Slowly these beauties all passed away,
As I saw Night's shadows descending,
And I deemed it well such a perfect day
Should have such a perfect ending.

STATE CORRESPONDENCE.

Educational Notes—Columbus Schools Continued.

Dropping in at

"SLADE'S SCHOOL,"

I had the pleasure of conversing at the same time with one of the oldest and one of the best school-men of the day. Rev. Thomas B. Slade was a cotemporary of Dr. Bemen's, in that Nestor's best days, and yet rules with a vigor that would surprise the old Doctor. From 1827 till 1869—a long stretch of years! Many a Telemachus to call him Mentor! One thinks about the old Scriptural promise about "them that teach." As for the fine and eager spirit of the younger Slade, it almost makes a man wish he had boys that they might go to this teacher, (by profession) who would infuse enthusiasm with learning, and the pupil arrives at last at loving knowledge, rather than transient displays of it. "Slade's School," then, is just what two such educators would make it.

We were so unfortunate as to miss an appointment with Dr. Dew's Superintendant of City Schools, and must forego the pleasure of reporting the more prominent schools of the city. We shall speak of them at another moment. If there is any school system we believe in, it is this.

But her inhabitants all unite in affirming that the latest best benefit Columbus has had conferred upon her, is the establishment here of

ST. JOSEPH'S ACADEMY.

In the location, architecture and beauty of its edifice; thoroughness of its curriculum and ability of its managers it is almost without a rival. Sister M. Bonaventure, Directress, impresses one from the first. To one accustomed to the flaming circulars and sometimes quaint assurances of many of our teachers, it is refreshing to take up their modest little prospectus, obviously an understatement, and to converse with a teacher who does not in words

"Exceed the pith
And marrow of performance."

Perhaps it is culture, perhaps it is the consecration of it, which gives to Sister M. Bonaventure's face and voice their felt charm. Perfectly acquainted with all the details of business, at home in the region of modern educational science, and conversant with its practicalities, she betrays above and beyond all this, a willingness to abandon the customary wrong method for the uncustomary right one—which is rare—and an anxiety to create new methods—which is more rare. In other words, she thinks. Other women think they think.

This Academy has now been established, at Columbus, two years, and it has won a merited success. The scholastic year, consisting of ten months, commences on the first Monday in September, and ends on the 30th of June. It is divided into two sessions of five months each. These sessions are, by far, too long. For ten uninterrupted months, (parents are requested not to withdraw the pupils from their classes during the two short recesses that intervene,) the pupil is immersed within the walls of a school, which becomes almost a convent. During this time she conforms to an external religious discipline, which is novel, attractive, and always attacking the sentimental part of her nature with a genius irresistable. She can not write home oftener than once in two weeks, and then her letter must be examined. When she receives a letter, she has a second reading of it. Finally, she is a victim of the "isms" here, the "Crown of Honor" system, in its worst exaggerations.

I have felt compelled to say the above because it is true, and it is not my intention to write up or write down any institution. It may be that my views about the education of young girls have been wrong. Perhaps this æsthetics of religion, this quiet oversight, this honor system, even this protracted period of study are confederate to the higher discipline of young womanhood. Certainly the faces I saw in the Academy of St. Thomas looked very happy. Whether these elements are disturbing or constituent elements of that happiness I cannot say.

The end of the present term occurs next Wednesday. There will be a distribution of prizes for excellence in scholarship. Bishop Augustine Verot, of Savannah, will be present. "EARNEST."

The Augusta Chronicle tells us Augusta is to have a new orphan asylum, and a Radical paper by Bryant. The Augusta Factory officers elected are Wm. E. Jackson, President, Edward Thomas, T. G. Barrett, J. B. Cummings. The Augusta and Macon Road will be begun in a week. Sea-island cotton raising is improving, since the Freedman's Bureau quit.

THE ADKINS MURDER.—A committee, composed of Republicans and Democrats and also relatives of the family, petitioned Mrs. Adkins to give the names or name of the murderer. She failed to answer the petition! The committee waited upon the family, and pledged themselves to arrest any one they should designate as guilty of the crime, but Mrs. Adkins, who was within a short distance of the house, refused to see the committee, and the daughters abruptly declined giving them any information!

Did ever a community do more to aid in ferreting out a crime? And was ever the name of a murderer more tenaciously withheld from the officers of the law?

There is a large number of troops here sent for the purpose of investigating the whole affair. The "appeal" is answered. The United States send her soldiery to protect them, and the State her Attorney-General to advise and defend them. Still, they hold the dying declaration of husband and father locked up in their own hearts, and the murderer goes unwhipt of justice.

We now ask, and call upon the press to echo the interrogation: Why are not the guilty parties made known?—Warrenton Clipper.

We have heard $1 25 offered for good wheat. That is a low opening, but a gradual decrease is certain. Oats will probably equal the wheat crop. If seasons continue favorable an abundant yield of corn will bless our section. It is only worth 85 cents now.—Dalton Citizen.

DALTON AND MORGANTOWN RAILROAD.—Mr. Edward White, President, and the Chief Engineer of this road, are out on a reconnoisance of the route, for a couple of weeks, when the plans will be drawn and an early survey commenced.—Dalton Citizen.

☞ It will be remembered that Bradley, who was struck from the bar by Judge Fisher, has sued Fisher. The case has gone against Bradley.

LAGER.—Two Teutons in Buffalo had a beer drinking match. The winner got down eighteen glasses of lager, the loser giving in on the sixteenth.

He thinketh that after the campaign is over, will be ample time for his lacerated honor to be cured up, by putting some lead in Senter's centre. Senter's bellicosity is more urgent. He wants to perforate Stokes' noggin right away. But ye valiant Stokes sticketh to his heroic procrastination.

ILLINOIS STORM.—In Illinois there has been a savage storm, which has done heavy damage to the crops all over the State. This thing occurs every few years, and is one of the drawbacks upon farming in that State, against which no forethought can provide. The corn crop especially, is greatly injured.

Take it all in all, Georgia presents inducements for inhabitancy that no State can surpass, if equal. Other sections may overstep us in some single particular, but regard it as a whole, its versatility of resource, its variety of production, its diversity of wealth, its beauty, its uniformity of climate and consequent certainty of crop, and its health, and Georgia presents attractions for locating and living, such as no other State offers.

Cotton.

In another column, will be found the comments of that leading and very able Republican journal, the Chicago Republican, upon an article of ours that appeared some time back, upon the engrossing theme of Cotton.

The Republican thinks we have fallen into an error in stating that "six bales to the hand is a fair average,"—in fact, to use its own rather remarkable phraseology—that we have committed an "exaggeration wide of the mark, amounting to a lampoon on experience."

For the benefit of our distant contemporary, we would say that our statement was based entirely upon practical planting experience. We are Southern, have seen cotton raised, have lived in a cotton country most of our days, and our statement was the result of conference with cotton planters from all sections. Three bales to the hand is an average far below the truth, as shown by experience, which we have according to the Republican lampooned. In some cases, hands have raised ten and twelve bales, while three bales is a poor yield. It is possible, we may have overstated the average a half a bale, but certainly not more than that, and we roundly claim that five bales, is the minimum average, and six a fair average.

The Republican must bear in mind some facts, of which, perhaps, it is ignorant, because practically unacquainted with planting in the South since the surrender. The statistical data of cotton raising in 1850, will not do for the present time.

Labor is concentrated now; it was diffusive then. Men, women and children were under contribution to make the staple, and this labor was loosely worked, because property. Now, strong, able-bodied men constitute the labor, and as they are paid liberally, the planter has to get all possible work out of them to save himself. The result is a greater yield to the hand, because the hand must work the harder to earn his money. He could idle before, as his time cost no money; now, he cannot idle, because loss of time is docked from wages, and hard work brings full pay.

Again, fertilizers are more generally used, thus increasing the yield to the acre, and giving the hand less ground to attend with. It is becoming the policy in all results. It is becoming the row the area cultivation operations, to narrow higher culture, and the result, to subject it to amounts of produce to the area and better hand.

Now, if there was any error in our article, it was that we underrated the yield of bales to the acre instead of overrating the number of bales to the hand.

According to the Republican's estimate, nine acres is the average amount of land: According to our estimate, eighteen acres. Experience bears us out. Twenty acres is considered one hand's task all over the State.

An experienced old cotton planter was in our office this morning, who tells us that before the war on eighty-eight acres of the very ordinary land in this vicinity, he raised with eleven hands, composed of four men, four women and three children, forty-four bales of cotton, and on other land also, twenty-five barrels of corn to the hand and other grain.

We opine, the error our contemporary falls into is, in not discriminating between the amount of cotton raised by a hand who raise nothing else, and the amount made in connection with a customary proportion of other crops.

If the Republican will apply the above lessons, taught of actual cotton-raising experience, it will see that our figures are consistent.

We estimated at a bale to three acres, that 7,000,000 acres were cultivated to raise 2,439,893 bales. The cultivation of 18 acres to the hand would give about the 400,000 hands.

We are disposed now to think, that the cotton of last year, was raised on even a less number of acres than 7,000,000—acres more enriched and more elaborately worked, and therefore, with less acres to the hand, and more cotton to the acre.

If this is true, it certainly strengthens our deductions, and we are legitimately entitled to the full benefit of the rich seduction of our cotton country for the immigrant.

And we think we are justified in stating that the Republican in its theatrical sport with abstract statistics, has lampooned experience instead of THE CONSTITUTION doing this very remarkable thing.

Our article has been generally copied by our Southern press, and in no instance has its statements been questioned.

☞ Reading matter on every page.

Cotton.

[From the Chicago Republican, June 29th.]

Yesterday, we reproduced, from the Atlanta CONSTITUTION, under the caption of "King Cotton," an article based upon one we published in our editorial columns recently, entitled "Some Curious Facts about Cotton." THE CONSTITUTION drew some just, interesting and valuable deductions from our facts and figures; but, in its zeal to exhibit the importance and even necessity to the South of copious immigration as a regenerating agency, has fallen into the error of stating that, in the cultivation of cotton, "six bales to the hand is a fair average," whereas we gave three bales as a high average, thus instituting a premise from which it followed that the crop of last year was grown by the labor of 405,148, instead of 810,298 persons, according to our calculation. As our article attracted considerable attention from the press, both North and South, we prefer to have this amendment of our postulate go out to the world with even the tacit acknowledgment of its correctness which might be implied from its publication without dissent.

Statistics bear us out in the assertion that we are right, and THE CONSTITUTION wrong, particularly with reference to last year's crop, notwithstanding that this journal, as one published in one of the foremost cotton States of the Union, may be presumed to be accurately and fully informed relative to a staple grown in its immediate neighborhood. The census of 1850 fixes the average yield of seed cotton at 505 pounds to the acre, and it is well known that the seeds will weigh from fifty to sixty per cent. of the whole product. Taking the lowest estimate, which gives THE CONSTITUTION every advantage, thus fixing the proportion of seed at exactly half, with nine acres—the fullest area which one hand, on the average can cultivate successfully in this crop—and we have 4,545 pounds of seed cotton, or 2,273 pounds of ginned. Dividing this number by six, the bales claimed to be produced per head, and we have six at an average weight of 379 pounds, or far under the weight which is the actual average. Consequently, to support its proposition, THE CONSTITUTION must assume that every acre planted last year with the fleecy staple yielded the never before attained quantity of 553¼ pounds as a general average. This assumption, in absence of facts to prove it, carries refutation on its own face.

Again: THE CONSTITUTION and ourselves are agreed that it requires three acres, on an average, to make one bale of cotton, and that last year's crop amounted to 2,430,893 bales, or 972,356,200 pounds. Multiplying the bales by the number of acres to the bale, we reach, with very approximate accuracy, the conclusion that 7,292,670 acres were planted. Dividing the number of acres to the bale, we reach, with very approximate accuracy, the conclusion that 7,292,679 acres were planted. Dividing the number of pounds by the number of acres, we find that the average production of ginned cotton per acre was within a small fraction of 135 pounds, equivalent to 370 pounds of seed cotton. These are the real facts, but if we should assign 663⅓ pounds to each acre, as required to fulfill the conditions of THE CONSTITUTION'S proposition, then we would have a total production of 3,889,448,800 pounds of seed cotton, or 4,861,811 bales of 400 pounds each—a perfectly absurd quantity. This, too, is in face of the fact that the census of 1850 puts the average product of cotton and seed per acre at the following figures: South Carolina, 320 pounds; Georgia, 500; Florida, 250; Tennessee, 300; Alabama, 525; Louisiana, 550; Mississippi, 650; Arkansas, 700; Texas, 750—an average of 505 for the whole area named.

We think we are justified in claiming that the statement that "six bales to the hand is a fair average," is an exaggeration wide of the mark, amounting to a lampoon on experience.

☞ An exchange wants to know why Grant has appointed so many negroes to office. We presume it was to give respectability to his other appointments, they being made from his list of relatives. [New York Democrat.

It is claimed that DR. TUTT'S VEGETABLE LIVER PILLS supplies this want. They act directly on the Liver; their constant use will not injure in the slightest degree the most delicate constitution. Females at any period may use them with great benefit, and realize great relief from the distressing nausea which they experience at certain times. These pills are not recommended as a cure-all, but simply for dislow Fevers, those maladies which follow, such and out of that important organ, Indigestion, Loss of Sick Headache, Inactive Piles, Jaundice, Costiveness, Heartburn, Chills and Fever, Ladies' Restlessness at night, and Flatulent Breath. RICHMOND, July 2.—The colored conservative barbecue, and ended by the accident, was attended by about three hundred colored men, and a large number of whites. A large crowd had congregated at the gate of the bridge leading to the island, being kept off the bridge by the police.

A barbecue given to the Walker colored men took place to-day on Vauxhall's Island adjoining the city. About 3 o'clock the chain bridge leading to the Island was crowded so that it broke carrying down about sixty persons. Col. James R. Branch, a prominent Broker and a Conservative candidate for the Senate, was instantly killed, also, was Policeman Kirkland, who was striving to prevent the crowd from rushing on the bridge. Seven colored men are fatally wounded.

Col. Branch, managing the affair, while standing on the bridge, directed the police to admit the crowd, which being done, the weight broke the structure, precipitating a number into the water, where Colonel Branch, Policeman Kirkham and Robert Ashby, were caught in falling timber and killed. Seven more were wounded, two of whom will die. Col. Branch's body was followed to his residence by a procession of the prominent citizens, and the police force in a body escorted Kirkham's remains to his home. Col. Branch was one of the first business men of the city. General gloom prevails here in consequence of the calamity.

"HIGH JINKS" AT THE POSTOFFICE. There was quite a crowd in and around this place all day yesterday, the darker element, of course, predominant. Many of the darkies were there for the purpose of getting their letters, they evidently being fully impressed with the idea that as a negro was postmaster, they were obliged to have letters there. When the hour for opening arrived the pressure, as the new postmaster remarked, was "tremendous." There was a great deal of confusion and hurrah and missent mail, but by letting everybody that insisted upon it come in and help themselves, the rush and rout was somewhat eased off. JOHNSON ON GRANT.

A Genuine Skinning—The President Hit with the Brakes Off—No Soul—No Ideas—No Policy.

I know Grant thoroughly. I had ample opportunity to study him when I was President, and I am convinced he is the greatest farce ever thrust upon a people. Why, the little fellow—excuse me for using the expression, but I can't help pitying him—the little fellow has nothing in him. He hasn't a single idea. He has no policy, no conception what the country requires. He don't understand the philosophy of a single great question, and is completely lost in trying to understand his situation. He is mendacious, cunning and treacherous. He lied to me flagrantly, by God, and I convicted him by my whole Cabinet; but that even would have been tolerable were it the only instance, but it was not. He lied to me on many other occasions. I tell you, sir, Grant is nothing more than a bundle of petty spites, jealousies and resentments.

And yet they say Grant is a second Washington. Only think of it, when you compare him with Washington or Jefferson, where is he? Why, he is so small, you must put your finger on him. He, a little upstart, a coward, physically and intellectually, to be compared to George Washington! Why, it makes me laugh. I have no spite against him. But I fear for the country when such a man is likened to the Father of his Country. Why, just look at the inaugural of Washington. He speaks about his fear and trembling in accepting the Presidency, even after all his experience and success. But this little fellow Grant, an upstart, a mere accident of the war, a creature without the ability to comprehend the philosophy of a single great question, says in his inaugural, "I know the responsibility is great, but I accept it without fear." Is that like Washington or Jefferson? Pshaw! It's monstrous to think of. Grant, I tell you, sir, has no ideas, no policy.

Physically and mentally and morally, he is a nonentity. Why, sir, his soul is so small that you could put it within the periphery of a hazel nutshell, and it might float about for a thousand years without knocking against the walls of the shell.

Just look at the man sitting at a Cabinet council. He has no idea, no policy, no standard, no creed, no faith. How can he guide the people? How can he impress any great improvements or moral ideas upon the nation?

He sits there with his Cabinet. One member has bought him a house in Philadelphia; another has given him $75,000; another has given him a carriage, and so on. It is degrading to the office of President of the United States, to have such a man there.

His ideas are of the cross roads order, and he has not a thought above that.

There has been a great social upheaval, and Grant is left on the top, and thinks there is something in him. It is precisely like a volcanic disturbance. The natural condition of the earth is broken up, strata after strata is broken through, things are displaced and turned upside down, and what should be at the bottom is thrown high up. That is just Grant's case. Why, Ben. Butler had a wonderfully correct idea of Grant. He used to come to see me much at one time, and expressed the profoundest contempt for Grant. His estimate of Grant was about the same as my own. He thought Grant could be made do anything, that he could be made a complete tool and that if he desired, he could have himself invited to Grant's house. It happened precisely so, afterward, just as Butler boasted. You remember Butler was invited to Grant's house, and it was brought about by Butler himself. Butler understands Grant thoroughly. I have no hesitation in declaring that Grant is a mean, avaricious, cunning, spiteful man—a complete bundle of petty jealousies, spites and lies. He has no courage. I made him fairly quail before my glance at that Cabinet meeting when I asked him about the famous correspondence concerning Stanton. I asked him question after question, and he quailed. When I finished he stood up, took his hat in his hand, and in a mean, sneaking way, said, "Gentlemen, have you any more questions to ask?" and slunk out of the room. I convicted him of lying and cowardice then, and you remember all about it, sir, for you published it at the time.—Washington Correspondence N. Y. Herald.

MESSRS. ADAIR & BRO., Atlanta, Ga.—GENTLEMEN: We received yours a few days since, requesting a statement of the merits of the Gullett Gin purchased of you last year. I have to say of this Gin that it is decidedly the best Gin of which we have any knowledge. The workmanship of the machine is very superior, every part of it being made with great care, and the boxes and shafts being set in a cast iron frame, admitting of no springing or working. It runs with a smoothness and niceity seldom attained in such machines. The improvements of this Gin are: 1st, it takes the dirt and trash out of the cotton. 2d. It, by means of the steel brush wheel, combs out the lint, and renders the fibre much longer than the ordinary Gin, or, at least, makes the cotton show a much longer fibre. These two improvements gives cotton ginned on this Gin, we think, fully the advantage of 1½ cents per pound in value over cotton of the same kind ginned on the ordinary gin; and when the cotton in the seed is very trashy and dirty, or contains a great many hard locks, it may add more to the market value of the lint. We could perceive no difference between the draught of this Gin and the old one we replaced by it of the same number of saws. The Gullett Gin certainly deserves the attention of planters.

Very respectfully,

M. & R. GARLINGTON.

DR. JOHN BULL'S Great Remedies.

DR. JOHN BULL,

Manufacturer and Vendor of the Celebrated

Smith's Tonic Syrup,

FOR THE CURE OF

AGUE AND FEVER,

—OR—

Chills and Fever.

The proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the safe, certain, speedy and permanent cure of Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and Southwestern country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion, that in no case whatever will it fail to cure, if the directions are strictly followed and carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health. It is, however, prudent, and in every case more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long-standing cases. Usually, this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order; should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic, a single dose of BULL'S VEGETABLE FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient.

Bull's Worm Destroyer.

To my United States and World-wide Readers.

I have received many testimonials from professional and medical men, as my almanacs and various publications have shown, all of which are genuine. The following letter from a highly educated and popular physician in Georgia, is certainly one of the most sensible communications I have ever received. Dr. Clement knows exactly what he speaks of, and his testimony deserves to be written in letters of gold. Hear what the Doctor says of BULL'S WORM DESTROYER:

VILLANOW, Walker Co., Ga., June 29, 1866.

DR. JOHN BULL—Dear Sir: I have recently given your "Worm Destroyer" several trials, and find it wonderfully efficacious. It has not failed in a single instance to have the wished for effect. I am doing a pretty large country practice, and have daily use for some article of the kind. I am free to confess that I know of no remedy recommended by the ablest authors that is so certain and speedy in its effects. On the contrary, they are uncertain in the extreme. My object in writing you is to find out upon what terms I can get the medicine direct from you. If I can get it upon easy terms, I shall use a great deal of it. I am aware that the use of such articles is contrary to the teachings and practice of a great majority of the regular line M. D.'s, but I see no just cause or good sense in discarding a remedy which we know to be efficient, simply because we may be ignorant of its combination. For my part, I shall make it a rule to use all and any means to alleviate suffering humanity which I may be able to command—not hesitating because some one more ingenious than myself may have learned its effects first, and secured the sole right to secure that knowledge. However, I am by no means an advocate or supporter of the thousands of worthless nostrums that flood the country, that purport to cure all manner of diseases to which humanity is heir. Please reply soon, and inform me of your best terms. I am, sir, most respectfully,

JULIUS P. CLEMENT M. D.

Bull's Sarsaparilla

A Good Reason for the Captain's Faith.

READ THE CAPTAIN'S LETTER AND THE LETTER FROM HIS MOTHER.

BENTON BARRACK'S, Mo., April 30 1866.

DR. JOHN BULL—Dear Sir: Knowing the efficiency of your Sarsaparilla, and the healing and beneficial qualities it possesses, I send you the following statement of my case.

I was wounded two years ago—was taken prisoner and confined for sixteen months. Being moved so often, my wounds have not healed yet. I have not set up a moment since I was wounded. I am shot through the hips. My general health is impaired, and I need something to assist nature. I have more faith in your Sarsaparilla than in anything else. I wish that that is genuine. Please express me half a dozen bottles, and oblige,

Capt. C. P. JOHNSON,
St. Louis, Mo.

P. S.—The following was written April 30, 1865, by Mrs. Jennie Johnson, mother of Captain Johnson:

DR. BULL—Dear Sir: My husband, Dr. C. S Johnson, was a skillful surgeon and physician in Central New York, where he died, leaving the above C. P. Johnson to my care. At thirteen years of age he had a chronic diarrhœa and scrofula, for which I gave him your Sarsaparilla. IT CURED HIM. I have for ten years recommended it to many in New York, Ohio and Iowa, for scrofula, fever scores and general debility. Perfect success has attended it. The cures effected in some cases of scrofula and fever sores were almost miraculous. I am very anxious for my son to again have recourse to your Sarsaparilla. He is fearful of getting a spurious article, hence his writing to you for it. His wounds were terrible, but I believe he will recover.

Respectfully, JENNIE JOHNSON.

ARKANSAS HEARD FROM.

Testimony of Medical Men

STONEY POINT, White Co., Ark., May 23, 1866.

DR. JOHN BULL—Dear Sir: Last February I was in Louisville purchasing drugs, and I got some of your Sarsaparilla and Cedron Bitters.

My son-in-law, who was with me in the store, has been down with rheumatism for some time, commenced on the Bitters, and soon found his general health improved.

Dr. Gist, who has been in bad health, tried them, and he also improved.

Dr. Coffee, who has been in bad health for several years—stomach and liver affected—he improved very much by the use of your Bitters. Indeed, the Cedron Bitters has given you great popularity in this settlement. I think I could sell a great quantity of your medicines this fall, especially of your Cedron Bitters and Sarsaparilla. Ship me via Memphis, care Bickett & Neely.

[OFFICIAL.]

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
ATLANTA, GA., June 30, 1869.

To the Sheriff, his Lawful Deputy, or the Jailer of Pike County:

WHEREAS, On the 21st day of June, A. D. 1869, Peter Reid was brought before James H. Culberson, a Notary Public and ex-officio Justice of the Peace in and for Pike county, charged upon affidavit of one John J. Carson, with the offense of enticing and decoying a servant from an employer, and upon his having been adjudged guilty, was then and there, therefor, sentenced by the said Notary Public and ex-officio Justice of the Peace, "to pay a fine of ten dollars and costs of prosecution, or in default thereof, to be confined in the common jail of said county of Pike until discharged;" and

Whereas, it appears from a petition presented to me, signed by respectable and responsible citizens, asking for the remission of said sentence, that the prisoner had not the benefit of counsel at his trial, and that the facts in the case show that the person whom he was charged with decoying is his own wife, who had been hired without his knowledge or consent, and that upon such charge and in default of payment of the fine imposed, he was sentenced as aforesaid, "to be imprisoned in the common jail of said county of Pike until discharged;" and

Whereas, it further appears that the said prisoner did in no wise induce or decoy his said wife from the service of her said employer, but that she left of her own free will and accord, and returned to her said husband; and

Whereas, the said Peter Reid is totally unable to pay the fine and costs imposed upon him by the sentence aforesaid, and would, if further confined, be prevented from cultivating his crop, and thus be compelled to suffer the loss of his whole year's labor;

NOW, THEREFORE, considering this a proper case for the exercise of Executive clemency, it is ORDERED, that the said fine of ten dollars, together with costs of prosecution, in and by the said sentence imposed, as aforesaid, upon the said Peter Reid, be and the same are hereby remitted; and that he be forthwith discharged and set at liberty.

Given under my hand and the Seal of the Executive Department, at the Capitol in Atlanta, the day and year first above written.

RUFUS B. BULLOCK, Governor.

EUGENE DAVIS,
Secretary Executive Department.

SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR OR

Medicine for Dyspepsia, Dysentery, Sick Headache, Chronic Diarrhoea, Affections of the Bladder and Kidneys, Fever, Nervousness, Chills, Diseases of the Skin, Impurity of the Blood, Melancholy or Depression of Spirits.

Most of the ailments here enumerated have their origin in a diseased liver, which is the most prevalent affection in this country, and as in many cases the patient is not within the reach of a physician, it requires that some remedy should be provided that would not in the least impair the constitution, and yet be active and safe. That such is the character of the SIMMONS REGULATOR there can be no doubt, which the testimony of hundreds will establish.

SYMPTOMS OF A DISEASED LIVER.

Pain in the side. Sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade is mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness, bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternating with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred when few of them existed, yet examination of the body after death has shown the Liver to have been extensively deranged.

It should be used by all persons, old and young, whenever any of the foregoing symptoms appear. It is a purely vegetable compound, is not injurious to the most delicate constitutions, and will keep the liver in healthy action if used properly.

Persons living in unhealthy localities may avoid all bilious attacks by taking a dose occasionally to keep the liver in healthy action.

Regulator

For children complaining of colic, headache, or sick stomach a teaspoonful or more will give relief. Children, as well as adults, eat sometimes too much supper, or eat something which does not digest well, producing sour stomach, heart-burn, or restlessness; a good dose will give relief. This applies to persons of all ages.

Many persons, from eating too much, are restless at night, or in day time fidgety, wool-gathering, can't understand what they read, can't keep their thoughts on any one subject so as to reason well, or become fretful. One or two tablespoonful will give relief.

Jaundice.—Take enough Regulator after eating each meal to produce one full action from the bowels every day.

Pregnant ladies will find sure relief from their headache, costiveness, swimming in the head, colic, sour stomach, restlessness, etc., etc.

THE PRINTER'S PICNIC.—The train for Vinings Station, on Monday, will leave at 8¼ o'clock, A. M., and return at 6 P. M.

BRING YOUR BASKETS.—We are requested by the Committee of Arrangements, to state that it is expected that parties attending the picnic on Monday, will come with well-filled baskets.

WATERMELON.—We are indebted to Mr. Emory, of the ice house, for a watermelon from his ice house, cool and delicious.

ALLIGATORS.—Quite a curiosity, in the shape of a huge alligator, and two small alligators, were at the State Road Depot, yesterday.

BISHOP VEROT.—Bishop Verot, of the Catholic Church, is in the city.

TAKEN THROUGH MISTAKE.—From the City Hall last night, a small brown silk Parasol, which the owner can obtain by calling at this Office.

MESSRS. ADAIR & BRO.—We direct special attention to the card of this staunch business firm in another column. Parties wishing articles in their line will find them prompt and reliable dealers. They are agents of the celebrated Gullett Cotton Gin, and publish in another column a testimonial of its worth.

A SEWING MACHINE.—Mr. W. G. Walker, General Agent for the State of Georgia, of the Wheeler & Wilson sewing machine has taken one of the large and commodious rooms, at the Kimball Opera House, on Marietta street, and designs making Atlanta the headquarters for the State. The machines are regularly numbered from the first one made. Among the machines is one numbered 38,215. The factory is reported to made 200 machines per day, or 60,000 per year, and to find a ready sale for all that they can manufacture.

MORTUARY REPORT.—In the subjoined report will be found the list of interments, in the city of Atlanta, for the month of June, 1869:

DEATHS.
Whites,	21
Colored,	39
Of these, Whites, over ten years,	8
" under " "	13
Colored, over ten years,	10
" under " "	29
Total,	60

As the month, just closed, terminates the Second Quarter of the Municipal year, it may be proper to reproduce the reports of corresponding periods of the three previous years:

	DEATHS.				TOTAL.
1866—2d Qr.	Whites,	63,	Colored,	86	149
1867—2d Qr.	"	38,	"	55	93
1868—2d Qr.	"	38	"	53	91
1869—2d Qr.	"	49	"	75	124

It will be perceived that a larger list of mortality is reported for the quarter just terminated, than for the corresponding ones of 1867 and 1868. This may be partially the result of the rapid influx of population into the city within the past few months.

For some months, so unusal a number of cases of "still born" off-spring, particularly among the colored population, have been observed that suspicion as to the offense of antenatal infanticide, might have been excited, but for the knowledge of the habits and the want of proper care on the part of those to whom reference is made.

Chairman Board of Health.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—Wallace & Fowler sold yesterday evening, a brick house of four rooms, on Mitchell street, adjoining Mrs. Beerman's, for $1,780, to J. M. Born, jr. This is the first purchase made by the ——— Real Estate Company.

HENRY SELTZER.—Henry Seltzer is a large importer and dealer in china, queen's glass and plated ware, and offers superior inducements to the trade, in fair dealing and fair prices.

A NEW TURN VEREIN.—The newsboys having abandoned their "keno" rink, have organized a turn verein association for the development of their muscle. We wish the boys success in this movement.

A NEW ENGINE.—The "Jolly Gal" No. 5, was out yesterday evening, and tried its powers in front of THE CONSTITUTION office. The company were out in full force. The handsome pipeman attracted attention.

SIDNEY LANIER.—This true poet, and gifted son of the Empire State, delivered an oration at the commencement exercises of the Furlow Masonic Female College at Americus, of which the Republican says:

"The oration was elegant, forcible, eminently suggestive, and eloquent. His theme, "the Future of the Land we Love," was discussed in the spirit of a broad and liberal mind, which overleaps the passions and prejudices of the present and in the light of a noble catholicism depicts the rising glories of the true, the beautiful and the good, in the bright and advancing future. There was nothing of the politician, but all of the man of principle and integrity, of lofty impulse and knightly chivalry, in the positions assumed and thoughts spoken by this gifted son of Georgia. The oration was the production of a cultivated student, glowing with the lustre and fervor of a strong and manly imagination."

S. R. GOODE, Esq.—Our young friend, S. R. Goode, Esq., is winning laurels as unfading in oratory, as on the tented field, for gallantry and patriotism. At the recent Commencent Exercises of Furlow Masonic Female College, at Americus, he delivered the Junior Oration. Of his effort, the Republican says:

"We desire to say that but one expression of opinion has come to us from the lips of those who heard it. His theme was "Intellectual Culture," and was handled in a masterly, chaste and eloquent manner. For twenty-seven minutes he engaged the close attention of his intelligent hearers; and the applause which followed his concluding remarks, testified the good favor with which his beautiful and eloquent oration was received by his auditory.

The Courier says;

"We were anxious to hear him, as good oratory appears to be one of the good gifts to the Goode family. He sustained fully the reputation of the household, and displayed his genius in clothing an old subject in a new dress, and in giving fresh expression and lovely features to a familiar face. His theme was Intellectual Culture, and like some old parchment drawn from mummy tombs, he made the antique relic interesting, and instructive as he read from its ancient face the meaning of its hieroglyphics."

☞ The local editors of the Atlanta papers are having an interesting time over each other's grammar. We don't think either has the advantage of another, and would recommend that they all attend the new Atlanta nigger college one session at least.—Fitch's ——.

We have not been a party to the fight about grammar, and therefore do not feel that the advice is intended for us. But does brother Fitch speak from personal experience of the benefits to be derived from attending said college?

THE WEATHER.—The Thermometer stood at Redwine & Fox's store yesterday, in the shade, as follows: 9 o'clock, 83 deg.; 11 o'clock, 87 deg.; 2 o'clock, 92 deg.; 4 o'clock, 92½ deg.; 6 o'clock, 92 deg.

☞ Mabel Grey, a queen of the London demi-monde, recently gave a dinner at St. James' Hall. Seventy tickets were issued at £10 a head. They sold rapidly at a premium among the husbands, brothers, and sons of respectable women. "Every club in London," says one who was there, "was represented. The feast was worthy of Lucullus. Mabel outdid herself."

THE MAMMOTH CAVE.—Extracts from a Private Letter. * * * * We groped about for many hours in this wonderful place. I never saw anything like it. The freaks of nature displayed here are very strange, and strike the beholder with awe. But the air in some parts of the cave is close and stifling, and when we came out, I found myself saddled with a terrible fever, which entirely prostrated me. The physician had never seen a case like it before, and no remedy he prescribed seemed to do the least good. My life was despaired of. Mrs. Wilson, with whom I was residing, had in the house a bottle of Plantation Bitters, and she insisted I should try it, for she said she knew it to be a certain cure in all cases of fever, debility, ague, dyspepsia, &c. I had but little faith, but finally consented to try it as a last resort. In less than three hours after the first dose my fever left me; in two days I was sitting up, and before Saturday night I was as well as ever. I tell you all this that you may know how to act in any case of fever, or any similar disease. I firmly believe the Plantation Bitters saved my life. * * * * * * *

In my next I will tell you about the Cave in detail. A. J. P.

DR. HUNTER
CONTINUES to treat all private diseases, Syphilis in all its forms, Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Orchitis, and all urinary diseases, and the effects of murcury are completely eradicated; Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produces some of the following effects: as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, constipation, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, noctural emissions, and finally prostration of the vital powers, can be fully restored to health. Persons afflicted with this, or any other delicate, intricate, or long standing constitutional complaint, should give the Doctor a trial. He never fails.
The Doctor publishes a medical circular that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases, that can be had free at his office, or by mail for one stamp. It gives a clear delineation of all the diseases and conditions resulting from the infringement of the moral laws, excesses, indulgences, exposures and imprudences in married or single life. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.
The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the Doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be forwarded by mail or express. In some instances, however, a personal examination is absolutely necessary, while in others, daily personal attention is required, and for the accommodation of such patients there are apartments connected with the office that are provided with every requisite that is calculated to promote recovery, including medicated vapor baths. All prescriptions are prepared in the Doctor's own Laboratory, under his personal supervision. Medical pamphlet at office free or by mail for two stamps. No matter who have failed, read what he says. Office No. 183 Third street, between Green and Walnut streets, near the Postoffice, Louisville. Office hours, 9 A. M. to 7 P. M.; Sundays, 10 A. M. to 12 M. june19-d&wly

THE DAILY CONSTITUTION.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA :::::::::JULY 2.

BY TELEGRAPH.

ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES.

DISTRICT COLUMBIA.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—Grant, in an interview with Cliff, Edwards, and other Georgians, said: "Having made the appointments for Augusta and Macon Post-offices, he was indisposed to change them until the incumbents proved incompetent." During this interview, Grant gave no indication that he was discussing the political status of Georgia.

The Cubans here have the following advices: After the Spaniards were repulsed in Civeo Villas District they were reinforced by two thousand troops, making the Spanish forces double the Cuban forces, compelling the Cubans to retreat. Eighty-five Cubans, including several Americans, captured, whom Lesca had shot.

Nearly all of the large plantations in Civeo Villas District were destroyed.

It is stated that the Cubans are concentrating to fight Lesca, and the news of a decisive battle is daily expected.

PENNSYLVANIA.

GETTYSBURG, July 2.—Gen. Meade, in his speech, urges a decent burial for the Confederates.

Morton, the orator of the day, in speaking of Cuba, says: "She is making a bold, vigorous, and we trust, a successful effort to throw off the Spanish yoke, and establish her independence."

He also said: In the field before us, are the graves of the rebel dead, now sank to the level of the clay—unmarked and unknown. They were countrymen of our blood, language and history. They displayed a courage worthy of their country, and of a better cause, and we may drop a tear to their memory. The news of their fall carried agony to thousands of Southern homes, and the wall of despair was heard in the everglades and orange groves of the South.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, July 2.—Puerto Principe advices to the 22d, represents the condition of the Spanish troops as dreadful. The hospitals are full—ten deaths daily.

A foraging party of one hundred and fifty strong were driven into the city, forty of whom went to the hospital.

The Cubans captured one hundred and eight at the first station from Principe.

One regiment of volunteers has two hundred sick in Quesada, in Nicenti.

The Spaniards attribute the success to the acquisition of filibusters, and states that forty thousand more troops are necessary.

The Spanish garrison is disheartened.

SPAIN.

GREAT EXCITEMENT IN DECATUR—A GHOST APPEARS IN DAY-TIME, WHISPERS, TALKS, AND GOES THROUGH A SOLID WALL—MEN WATCH AT NIGHT FOR IT, ARMED TO THE TEETH.—The town of Decatur has been startled from its quietude by the appearance of a ghost in its midst. The ghost has chosen for its theatre of action a small school-house, to the great consternation of the schoolmistress and the pupils. This ghost seems to be sui generis, for it appears in broad daylight, and not at midnight's mystic hour. The schoolmistress hears it whisper in her ear, but can see no bodily presence. When spoken to, it answers back, and when threatened with being shot, tauntingly defies the boaster. It has gone through a solid wall, leaving no evidence of its entry. And while the children were assembled in the ante-room, good sized rocks came through the ceiling above them, and struck them on the head. Although the children saw the rocks and felt the blow, they could not see any hole in the ceiling for rocks to come through. Last night several "plucky" young men watched the premises, but the ghost did not put in its appearance. The effort to solve the mystery has, thus far, proved unavailing. Of course the excitement is intense.

A CHALLENGE TO THE WORLD!

WE challenge the world to produce a better or a stronger recommendation for any article for any purpose than the following:

NOVEMBER 1ST, 1868.

INFIRMRY FOR THE BLIND!

DR. W. A. HOOTEN

HAS REMOVED HIS INFIRMARY FOR THE Blind from Cotton Hill, Ga., to Atlanta, Ga., where he has located permanently. He is now prepared to treat diseases of the Eye successfully, and will give his personal attention to all cases presented. He has been a practicing physician eighteen years. He relieves almost all cases without the knife. He has been blind three years himself, and after having exhausted, as he thought, the skill of the profession, both North and South, became in possession of a treatment by which he was soon restored to sight. He uses the same treatment with which he himself was relieved, and has restored a great many persons from total blindness. He knows of no Oculist in the United States who uses the same treatment. He also treats Chronic Diseases in all forms, particularly diseases of Females, Venereal troubles of long standing, Dropsies, Liver Complaints, Coughs, etc.

Terms for treatment, CASH.

INFIRMARY—Large two story brick building on corner of Baker and Collins streets.

To remove from the minds of the most scrupulous any prejudices that may arise, he refers the public to the following first class names, giving the Post office address of each, and proposes that for proof that any of the certificates herein published by him are not genuine, or that these cures were not effected by him as herein stated, to pay to the order of the individual producing said proof the sum of Five Thousand Dollars.

CERTIFICATES.

To the Blind:

Go to Dr. Hooten, at Cotton Hill, Clay county, Ga., and be cured. If possible to have your eyes restored, he can and will do it. My daughter lost her eye sight suddenly of Amaurosis. I had almost despaired of her ever being restored, but on hearing of Dr. Hooten, I immediately placed my daughter under his treatment, and in a short time she was entirely restored, and can now see as well as she ever could at any time. Do not delay, but go at once to Dr. Hooten, and be cured. His treatment is harmless. If he does you no good, he will do you no harm. My daughter and I cannot find words sufficient to express our gratitude to Dr. Hooten.

This certificate I give cheerfully, earnestly hoping it may prove a benefit to the blind, and also to my much esteemed friend, Dr. Hooten.

Very respectfully,
WILLIAM SMITHA.

Eufaula, Ala., June 1st, 1867.

SMITHVILLE, GA., May 31, 1867.

To Persons Afflicted with Sore Eyes:

I feel it my duty to Dr. Hooten, and to those of our good people who are troubled with diseases of the eye, to say that, after suffering four years with Chronic Inflammatory Sore Eyes, and after applying to a large number of most eminent physicians without obtaining any kind of relief, I was relieved of blindness, all soreness of the eyes, and, I may say, entirely cured within two weeks of treatment by Dr. Hooten. I can cheerfully say further, that his treatment is mild, and most certainly harmless, if not beneficial. I would like to pay Dr. Hooten the debt of gratitude I owe him for the almost miraculous cure of my blindness, and give this certificate gratuitously, hoping that it may be of some benefit to him, and also to suffering humanity. Respectfully,

THOS. W. JOHNSON,
Prop. of Eating House, Smithville, Ga.

For the benefit of those suffering with Sore Eyes and in justice to Dr. Hooten, I will state that I took my wife to Dr. Hooten, on the 7th of May, 1868, entirely blind—the result of a very high degree of Inflammation of the Eyes. She commenced improving very soon under his treatment, and continued to improve rapidly until quite restored to sight. On the 15th day of July following, she returned home with her sight entirely restored, without the slightest inflammation about her eyes perceptible. I feel safe in recommending Dr. Hooten to every one suffering with their eyes. Dr. Hooten is a Georgian by birth and education, and deserves the confidence to which he is so much entitled.

S. S. DUNLAP,
Firm of Morgan & Dunlap, Macon, Ga.

July 25th, 1868.

I placed myself under treatment of Dr. Hooten in August, 1868. When I arrived at Dr. Hooten's I could not discern a ray of light—was entirely blind of Amaurosis, and one-half of me paralized. After three months' treatment of Dr. Hooten, my paralysis was removed, and my sight entirely restored. I can now enjoy the light of day in peace and happiness—can perform my daily labor on a farm as before my affliction. Respectfully

S. L. SANDERLIN.

Dover, Ga., Feb. 15, 1869.

To those Troubled with Diseased Lungs, as Coughs, etc

I had long been troubled with a cough, considered by many to have consumption. On calling Dr. Hooten to see me he readily detected the cause of my cough, and cut into my lung. From the incision made by him there was discharged at least a quart of puss daily, for eight months in succession. He restored me to perfect health, except that lung does not act well. I can now labor as hard as I ever did. If your cough is severe it will pay you well to take treatment of Dr. Hooten.

Respectfully, JAMES HARDMAN.

Cotton Hill, Ga., Jan. 1, 1868.

I herein certify that I had not seen a day's health in ten years before taking treatment of Dr. Hooten, because of a chronic affection of the liver. I became greatly troubled with Dropsy—could feel the water shake in me every step I took. In four days of treatment from Dr. Hooten, I was entirely relieved of the Dropsy. However strange it may appear, it nevertheless is true.

I would certainly advise all persons troubled with Dropsy to give Dr Hooten a trial.

Respectfully, SAMUEL R. PINCKSTON.
